Reading Olympics fosters friendly competition

BY THE EXAMINER STAFF

"The goal of the Reading Olympics is to foster the love for reading."

The Bellefontaine Elementary School Reading Olympics culminated in the Distance Learning Center this week with a game-show style competition, where students shared their reading knowledge through buzzing in their answers.

The annual event is a three-month competition for second-graders, where each student was challenged to read 14 books. They had to read at least seven books to qualify for Monday's final.

Each student was also required to fill out journal pages to show they understood each book.

Twenty-two students advanced to the final event. Eight teams were formed and answered questions about the books they read.

Each book was on the fourth-fifth grade reading level.

"The goal of the Reading Olympics is to foster the love for reading. All of the reading is done on the student's own time," BES Gifted Intervention Specialist Stephanie Fissel ▶ said.

Tasty project promotes healthy snacking

BY THE EXAMINER STAFF

A series of taste tests took place recently at Benjamin Logan High School as a way to reinforce what the younger students are learning about hearthealthy foods and smart snacking.

The high school students in Christa Knight's Principles of Foods and Global Foods classes spent time preparing and serving samples of healthy snacks to encourage second-, third-and fourth-grade students to expand their pallets.

The activity also coincided with the American Heart Association Kids Heart Challenge at Benjamin Logan Elementary.

The elementary students had the opportunity to walk over to the high school each day during their physical education class.

Having students taste healthy food items is at the heart of nutrition education because if students have the opportunity to try and like healthier foods, they'll be more likely to become healthier eaters, the presenters noted.

To help the younger students identify the fruit or vegetable in the grocery store when shopping with parents, the high schoolers made a point to show the fruit, vegetable and other ingredients in its whole and cut up forms during the taste testing.

In addition, several recipes were shared so parents can extend the tasting at home.

"A taste test encourages children to step out of their comfort zones and learn more about themselves by being brave and trying something new," Mrs. Harner said.

Community Markets of Bellefontaine was a sponsor of this project through a donation of many ingredients for the recipes created by the high school foods classes.

Art and music success honored

A number of Calvary Christian Schools students recently participated in the Association of Christian Schools International Music & Art Festival event. Sixteen students, grades 9-12, showed art work at the adjudicated show, with three pupils earning a "superior" rating: Brooklyn Horner, Nicolas James and Preston Carnes. The grades 7-8 choir received an "excellent" rating and the high school women's choir was awarded a "superior" during both choirs' first appearances at the festival. The grades 6-12 band continued their success with a "superior" rating for their performances. (CCS PHOTOS)

Jags take 'athletic freak' Walker with top pick in NFL draft

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Placing more emphasis on pro potential than college production, the Jacksonville Jaguars chose Georgia pass rusher Travon Walker with the top pick in the NFL draft on Thursday night.

The Jaguars took the 6-foot-5, 272-pound "athletic freak" over Michigan star Aidan Hutchinson, who set a school record with 14 sacks in 2021 and finished second in Heisman Trophy voting.

General manager Trent Baalke had been leaning toward Walker for months and insisted new coach Doug Pederson was totally in agreement on selecting the former Bulldogs defender at No. 1. Critics argued that Hutchinson was the more polished product and pointed to Walker's limited college numbers. He had 91/2 sacks in three years in Athens, Georgia, including six during last season's national championship run.

But Baalke and Pederson see a more versatile player in Walker, who logged snaps at defensive end, defensive tackle and outside linebacker in Georgia's vaunted defense last fall. His highlights include more than sacks; he stops the run, tackles speedy receivers in the open field and tips passes that lead to interceptions.

"He's an athletic freak," Georgia defensive coordinator Will Muschamp told The Associated Press. "I swear to God he could line up at middle linebacker and go be fine. I would take him at No. 1 and not even blink."

The Jaguars did just that.

Once a two-sport star with NBA dreams at Upson-Lee High School in Thomaston, Georgia, Walker eventually settled on football and quickly became one of the most sought-after recruits in talent-rich Georgia. He signed with the Bulldogs and played college ball a little more than 100 miles from his hometown.

He bided his time as a backup during his first two years at Georgia – he made the league's Freshman All-SEC Team – and really started to blossom as a junior. He started all 15 games in 2021, finishing with 37 tackles, including 7½ for a loss, and two pass breakups.

Muschamp first met Walker when he was 10 years old and now considers him one of the best kids he's ever coached.

"There's not a single red flag," Muschamp said. "He's the real deal now."

Jacksonville is the fourth NFL franchise with back-to-back No. 1 picks and is hoping to become the first to nail both selections.

Tampa Bay (1976-77, 1986-87), Cincinnati (1994-95) and Cleveland (1999-2000, 2017-18) all failed to find success both times.

The Jaguars believe quarterback Trevor Lawrence, the slam-dunk top choice a year ago, is on the verge of becoming a star and just needs more help around him.

Bearcats' Gardner selected by New York Jets with 4th pick

FLORHAM PARK, N.J. (AP) — The New York Jets are adding some Big Apple Sauce to their defense.

Cincinnati cornerback

Ahmad "Sauce" Gardner was taken by the Jets with the No. 4 overall pick in the NFL draft Thursday night.

The 6-foot-2, 190pound shutdown cornerback didn't allow a touchdown reception in his three-year college career. He'll join free agent signing D.J. Reed to give coach Robert Saleh a new-look secondary — with both considered No. 1-type cornerbacks.

Gardner, wearing a diamond-encrusted "SAUCE" medallion and an equally gaudy sauce bottle on a chain around his neck at the draft site in Las Vegas, oozes confidence on and off the field. New York can only hope he can be as dominant a defender as their previous homegrown shutdown cornerback: Darrelle Revis, who went 14th overall in 2007.

Cleveland's losing skid at 7 after sweep by Angels

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — The Los Angeles Angels haven't won a playoff game in over 12 years, and they haven't finished with a winning record since 2015.

With a five-game winning streak and a wealth of confident players across their roster, the Halos are starting to believe this year will be different, even though it's not yet May.

"We're going to be good this season," rookie lefthander Reid Detmers said.

Taylor Ward drove in two runs, Brandon Marsh had three hits and an RBI, and the Angels completed a four-game sweep of the Cleveland Guardians with a 4-1 victory on Thursday.

Detmers (1-1) pitched five innings of two-hit ball to earn his second career major-league victory for the Angels, while Ward and Marsh hit RBI singles in the third inning of Los Angeles'

12th win in 16 games.

The Halos are six games over .500 for the first time since late June 2018. That's no small achievement for a franchise that has wasted incredible years from Mike Trout and Shohei Ohtani during its seven-year playoff drought.

"We've just got to keep this train rolling," said Marsh, who's fourth in the AL with a team-leading 15 RBIs. "It was a great (series) for everyone in this locker room, and we've just got to keep this going."

Orange County native
Austin Hedges homered and had two hits for the Guardians, who have lost the first seven games of their 10-game road trip.
Cleveland scored only seven runs in four games against Los Angeles, with five of those coming in Wednesday's blowout loss.

"It's definitely not fun," outfielder Myles Straw said.
"None of us want to be going through this, but it's a weird sport. I think we're going to come around, come together and be just fine."

Detmers put together another strong start befitting one of the top lefthanded prospects in baseball, walking one and striking out four.

Los Angeles' hot start to the season is largely due to stellar work by its long-struggling rotation, capped by this four-game series with the starters allowing just three runs in 23 innings. The Angels' bullpen is also much improved: Four relievers combined for four innings of scoreless two-hit ball, with Raisel Iglesias pitching the ninth for his fifth save.

"I don't know about the last three games, but they certainly held us down (today)," Cleveland manager Terry Francona said.
"We hit some balls right at people, and we're going to have to continue to do that, to have those at-bats."

Cal Quantrill (1-1) yielded four hits and one earned run over six solid innings for the Guardians, striking out four and walking three.

Reds' struggles continue in 7-5 loss to Padres

CINCINNATI (AP) — Ha-Seong Kim hit a tiebreaking, three-run double in the sixth inning and the San Diego Padres beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-5 Thursday to complete a season sweep in the series.

Left fielder Tommy Pham just missed a diving catch of Kim's two-out, sinking line drive, which gave San Diego infielder five RBIs during the series.

Kim had three hits, including two doubles, the second glancing off the top of the left field wall.

"I wanted it to be out so bad," Kim said via interpreter, adding with a slight smile, "I'll eat more and do more weight training."

Reliever Tony Santillan hit two batters, walked another and threw a wild pitch while San Diego sent nine batters to the plate. Santillan avoided further damage when center fielder Jake Fraley made a diving catch of Jake Cronenworth's drive to the warning track.

"From the bench I thought Santillan was trying to throw his slider too hard," Reds manager David Bell said. "He's been so good for us, and we've asked a lot of him."

JACQUELINE BIGAR'S STARS | FROM KING FEATURES SYNDICATE

Moon Alert: Avoid shopping or making important decisions from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. EDT today (2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. PDT). After that, the Moon moves from Aries into Taurus.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY for Friday, April 29, 2022:

You are imaginative and inventive. Even though you are conventional in many ways, you are also unconven-tional in a slightly rebellious way. You have a witty take on life. This will be a social, fun-loving year for you. Your creativity and zest for life will be strong! Enjoy your increased popularity!

The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll Have: 5-Dynamic; 4-P 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult

ARIES (March 21-April 19)

 This morning you're in a practical frame of mind and full of common sense. You might talk to someone older or more experienced who has good advice for you. Possibly, you will advise someone. This can be a productive day for you. Tonight: Maintain your possessions. TAURUS (April 20-May 20)

 This is an excellent day to do research, because you have the patience and perseverance to dig for what you're looking for. You will pay attention to detail and leave no stone unturned. With this attitude, you'll get great satisfaction from your accomplishments. Tonight: You win! GEMINI (May 21-June 20)

★★★ A discussion with a female friend or a member of a group might yield some practical advice or some important knowledge today. After all, you don't have to reinvent the wheel. Listen to what someone has to say, because it will benefit you and your future goals.

Tonight: Solitude.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)

 It's curious, but details about your private life might be made public, or at least available to some people today. This might relate to your dealings with a parent or your relationship to a boss or someone in a position of authority. If you speak up, you will be heard. Tonight: Be friendly.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

* Today you have a strong desire to "get away from all this." You need time off for good behavior. If you can't travel somewhere, then go somewhere you've never been before in your town. You will enjoy discussing philosophy, religion and politics in a serious way today. Tonight: You are noticed. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

★★★ You'll make great headway today if you tackle some paperwork or redtape details related to taxes, debt, insurance matters, inheritances or shared property. The reason you will get a lot done is that you are focused and in a practical frame of mind. Tonight: Explore!

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)

★★ It will be in your best interests to get along with others today, because for most of this day, the Moon is opposite your sign. This means you have to go more than halfway when dealing with others. Meanwhile, someone might have advice for you about children, pets, sports or vacation plans. Tonight: Check your finances.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

★★★ Today your approach to your job (or your health) will be straightforward and practical. In fact, you will prefer the company of serious people, because you have a sincere concern for your duties and obligations to others. Tonight: Be cooperative.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

 Children might be an increased responsibility today. If so, you will take this seriously and do whatever is necessary. Meanwhile, this can be a produc-tive day for artists and those in creative projects, because you're willing to do the grunt work that is always part of the job. Tonight: Get organized. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

 Today you will be somewhat reserved, especially when talking to female relatives. You're not in the mood for frivolity. Instead, you will welcome being alone with your thoughts and feelings today. Nevertheless, be open to the advice of someone more experienced. Tonight: Focus on kids. AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

★★★ This is a good day for serious discussions with others, because you want to tackle down-to-earth, com-mon-sense problems. Someone older might help you, or they might steer you in the right direction. You'll be thorough in whatever you do. Tonight:

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)

 When it comes to financial matters today or to shopping, you will be thrifty. "A penny saved is a penny earned." (If you save a little every day, at the end of a year, you'll be surprised at how little you have.) Nevertheless, respect your money today. Tonight:

BORN TODAY

Actor Daniel Day Lewis (1957), actress Uma Thurman (1970), actor, comedian Jerry Seinfeld (1954)
